

Long Term Athlete Development Policy

Newfoundland and Labrador Amateur Taekwondo Union Inc. Long Term Athlete Development Policy

Long Term Athlete Development (LTAD) Model is a Sport Canada Initiative under Canada Sport for Life designed to provide a blueprint for the athletic and personal development of the participants. The model is also designed to help with healthy life-long sport participation.

Taekwondo Canada (TC) is the national Sport Federation in Canada recognized by the World Taekwondo Federation (WTF), Pan American Taekwondo Union (PATU), Sport Canada and Canadian Olympic Committee and has developed LTAD strategies for the martial Art and Sport of Taekwondo in Canada.

The Newfoundland and Labrador Amateur Taekwondo Union (NLATU), as the Member Organization representing Taekwondoists in Newfoundland and Labrador hereby recognizes and endorses Taekwondo Canada's Long Term Athlete Development (LTAD) Plan.

Board Approved 2012